We invite submissions to the 6th Workshop in Macro Banking and Finance hosted by the University of Sassari at Porto Conte Ricerche, Alghero Sardinia. The workshop continues the sequence of the five previous editions held at the Universities of Milan-Bicocca, Rome-Tor Vergata, Pavia, Rome-“La Sapienza and Cattolica del Sacro Cuore.

Keynote speakers:

Fernando Alvarez (University of Chicago)
Luca Dedola (European Central Bank)
Marco Pagano (University of Naples Federico II and CSEF)

This annual workshop (kindly sponsored by UniCredit & Universities Foundation), aims at establishing a tradition of a yearly workshop among Italian-based macro-monetary, banking and finance economists. The final goal is to create synergies, foster interaction and the development of joint research projects between researchers and institutions.

Participation to these workshops by young researchers as well as Ph.D students close to thesis completion is encouraged. In this respect:

Two Young Economist Best Paper Awards of 1,000€ each will be conferred to the two best paper submitted to the conference. All co-authors must be either citizen of one countries where UniCredit is present or currently employed or enrolled in a Ph.D. program at a university or institution located in any of these countries within the geographical area of UniCredit. See:
